HONORING TIM EVANS OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

(Mr. SARBANES asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SARBANES. Mr. Speaker, I just wanted to get up here for 1 minute and congratulate a gentleman named Tim Evans, who is from Owings Mills, Maryland. He is a constituent of mine and today he was recognized by the Partnership for Public Service for his public service.

This is the week we celebrate public service across the country and, obviously, in the State of Maryland. Tim Evans is a policy analyst at the Social Security Administration who has figured out ways to upgrade the customer-friendly dimension of the Social Security Web site so that it can respond to inquiries from current beneficiaries and potential beneficiaries, and he has won awards for this.

I want to salute him for his work, for his innovation and creativity, which reflects the kind of energy and enterprise that we have inside of our Federal workforce. So, Tim Evans, congratulations to you for the work you do. We thank you for it.

CONGRATULATING STEVEN P. JOHNSON

(Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate a health care leader, Steven P. Johnson, President and CEO of the Susquehanna Health Systems in Williamsport, Pennsylvania, for winning a prestigious award and recognition.

The American Hospital Association named Mr. Johnson this year's recipient of the Grassroots Champion Award for the State of Pennsylvania. Mr. Johnson was nominated for this honor by the Hospital & Healthsystem Association of Pennsylvania because of his demonstrated leadership in generating grassroots support for the hospital community. There is no greater proponent for improved community health care than Steven Johnson.

Mr. Speaker, Mr. Johnson's leadership in health care is based on a commitment to caring for those who both
